With three floors of light and spacious living and an exclusive location in Les Esserts area of Verbier, Chalet is hard to beat.

Breathtaking views of the surrounding peaks

Recently refurbished, this beautiful free-standing chalet, set over three floors, is a wonderful light and spacious retreat for up to twelve guests. In a private yet convenient location, the chalet is a true mountain home for friends and family with stunning views of the Petit Combin and Mont Blanc mountain ranges. Close to Carrefour, the slopes are easily accessed via the six-person Mayenzet chair lift. More adventurous skiers can ski almost to and from the chalet's front door.

Combining antique furniture, wood-panelled walls and open fire places, Chalet is a vision of understated elegance. Many of the rooms are south-facing, benefiting from the natural light that floods in through the windows. On the first floor is the main living area with an open fireplace, Ben Whistler-designed sofas and access onto a vast balcony with incredible views. Adjacent to the living room is a well-equipped kitchen and dining area. Also on this level is an office and guest WC.

Unwind after a day exploring the delights of Verbier

With an outdoor hot tub, sauna and steam room, there is plenty of opportunity to relax at Chalet.

Spread over three floors are five en-suite super-king double/twin bedrooms and one twin bedroom. Two rooms have en-suite bathrooms whilst the remaining four rooms have en-suite shower rooms. The master bedroom has the luxury of a fireplace.
